Distr.: Limited
1 February 2006

Original: English

Sixtieth session
Agenda item 71 (b)
Human rights questions: human rights questions, including alternative approaches for improving the effective enjoyment of human rights and fundamental freedoms

Australia, Austria, Canada, France, Japan, the Netherlands and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland: draft decision*

Khmer Rouge trials

The General Assembly concurs with the recommendation of the Secretary-General in his report on Khmer Rouge trials[1] that the international judges, the international co-prosecutor and the international co-investigating judge should be deemed officials of the United Nations for the purposes of their terms and conditions of service and approves the granting of that status to them for those purposes.

* In order for the General Assembly to be able to consider the present draft decision, it will be necessary to reopen consideration of sub-item (b) of agenda item 71.
